Principal's Message

This yearbook is special and historical. It is the first yearbook of the new millennium. It is also the first yearbook for a school that has just achieved its longtime goal of providing programs for teaching students from kindergarten to grade twelve.

The yearbook has a new look this year. It has been divided into three sections – Elementary, Junior High, and High School. It is a wonderful summary of a school year filled with candid photos as well as class photographs. I am very proud to see featured a graduating class that is one of the most special I have had the opportunity to work with. I hope to see the yearbook a dozen years from now filled with pictures of graduating students who are completing kindergarten this year.

I want to take this opportunity to commend Mrs. Foster and Mr. DeBourcier and the many staff and students who helped create this book.

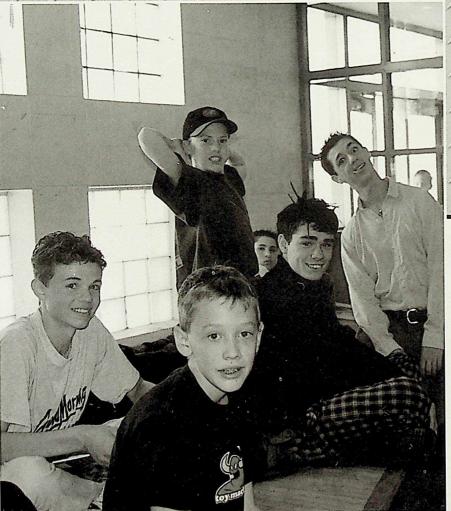

To those of you who are graduating, I wish you success in all your future endeavors. To the rest of our students, I look forward to seeing you when school resumes in the fall.

Sincerely,

R.C. Maskell Principal

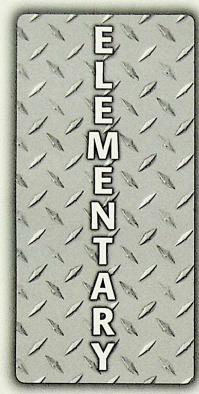

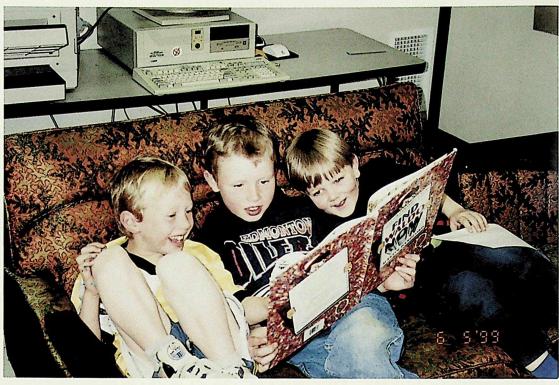

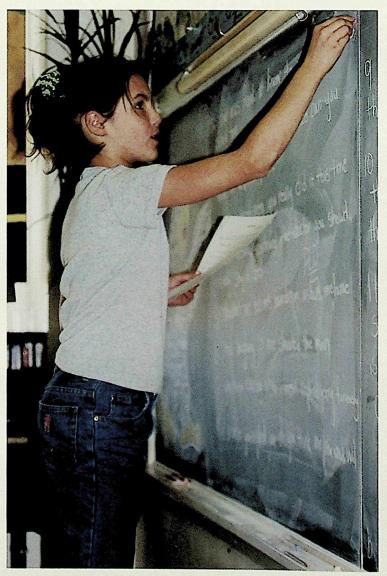

Elementary, Junior High and High School students alike have a place at Vic. There's something for everyone!

"Each friend represents a world in us; a world possibly not born until they arrive and it is only by this meeting that a new world is born"-Anais Nin Thank you to all my family, teachers, cheerleading coaches, fellow team members. Thanks to all my friends. I'll remember our 10:30 a.m. T.A. chats, cherry coke and truth-or-dare games. Thank you to my other dear friends, C.B., M.M., T.M., C.B., B.G., D.J., M.R., and many others who taught me about the additional important things in life. such as faith, divine nature, individual worth, knowledge, choice and accountability, good works and integrity, and most of all, love.

It's been an interesting four years here at Vic. Made lots of friends and even learned a bit. Thanks to all my friends, especially D.S., C.H., A.O., G.D., R.B., L.M., J.A., C.C, J.L.P., SLICK and DOPEY, without your support I would have never made it this far. New York was a blast. I'll never forget all the fun I had, and all the sights I saw. Time Square was great. Nikko by now I must owe you a keg for all those small things. Thanks for making it a fun last year.

There's this sign off the side of the highway outside the city. It says: Freedom 1 km. What is that supposed to mean? "One minute there was road beneath us..."

"Do you guys go to Vic? Yeah, I went there. Look how far it got me." — Woman working at Robin's Donuts

If there's one thing I've learned from high school, it's how much I don't know. Well, that and how to gracefully recover from an embarrassing fall up the stairs. Thank you to the teachers who cared enough to care, especially the crazy ladies who live in the dance studio and the weird little theatre man across the hall. And of course my friends, who left me in the dust, or the grass rather, when I was on crutches. I always knew I could depend on you guys! But I love you anyway.

Jessica Barrett

Thanks.
Go out to blair@endearing, the maneen kids, rob@bulletproof, all the kids that come out, all the bands that rocked out, the forgotten bogners, rich@freecloud, gary@sonix, the winnipeg kids, my family, all my friends, pat, jarrett, rahil, bogner, molly, tera, tyler, vance, camilla, tom, cory z/h, nick, kaj, mike and anyone else who supported us and the punk rock street hockey league.

Jessica Baudin

Forever I will remember my three years at Vic as being the strengthening transition period of my life. To my many entertaining chums, specifically: (AA), Abee, LB#1, KC, MF, JL, AS and VS, thanks for making me smile. To my soul mates, my buds for life: Alison, Marsh, Carol Poo, and Giz, Thanks for the fun filled lunchtimes and for putting up with me. Tlaquepaque forever!! My last words are as follows: When one makes it their mission to learn everything possible, only then will they know what it means to enjoy life. Trust me on this.

Lasha Bauer

There will be many things that I will miss about high school, such as the cheap coffee,.... and... uhhh...okay that's it.

Jasmine Beckman

Thanks for being there for me Kathryn and Wendy, I'll be with you 'till the end. Sarah, Janelle, Nicole; thanks for being my moral support (smoke breaks) Kelly and Steven (my sexy men) for always making me laugh. Bean for always taking care of me (I luv U!) Lisa and Rachel for always making me feel beautiful and important. Callie and Dave for wearing the same uniform (R+B) Caitlin for always being bright (smiles!) Melanie (scar) for having the best hair, to the NY crew, I'm glad it was with you, to my Mc crapville buddies I will quit one day. I love you all.

The English teachers at Vic are great, they only expect you to know 23 letters of the alphabet, and I was worried that I would have to know all 30. Just kidding! Thanks to all my teachers. I'll always remember JAK, VIK, KO, BB, AS and all of my other friends that I've met throughout the years. The memories of my classes at Vic will last me a lifetime, especially dance classes, Math 10IB, Math 20, Math 31 and Social 30. I give my best wishes for the future for Ms. Caouette's baby. To quote Mr. Willette: "I was thinking it!" Always remember, be true to yourself and to your friends. Best wish from "sweet-heart-4"

First of all, I'd like to thank former Vic student R.H. for convincing me to come here. It was great playing ball here, even if it was for the most underachieving team in history. We might not have been the best team, but we were definitely the prettiest. Props to my man D, his runs with K.L., our party at his aunty's and winning the 3-on-3 at QE with S.C. and M.S. We've all really changed since grade 10. Here's to me and A.M., Mr. Pearcy always having a witty comment in-hand, and my little bro Alexei (G.P.). Finally, thanks to Kara. When I'm with you I feel I can do anything. I love you.

So here we are after 12 years of forced education. On our journey to post secondary for some means more years at home, but for others this will mean their own place and Kraft Dinner out of a pot. In these hallways we've all laughed cried and for most of us these high school days have helped us find ourselves. I've lost and made many friends, these friends have helped me through so much and are close to my heart. So my thanks goes out to: J.A, R.B, V.C, D.D, L.G, L.H, K.H, S.K, J.K, Z.L, L.L, Lola, K.P, B.P, and T.S-F. Plus all my other friends and classmates. To Frau Foster thanks for the challenges and opportunities you gave me. Immer Deutschland.

I know I'm not at the Oscars just yet, but I'd like to thank all of those people who have made my entire six years here fly by. Especially E.D, B.M., M.D., G.P. and E.M. who'll probably never read this but have been immensely influential. A-M.T., J.M., A.L., J.W., C.F., who've been great buds in and out of the theatre and L.T. and V.C. who've been the bestest of best friends. Buh bye.

I would like to thank DM, AF, JM, KZ AS, KH, TC, my friends from acting and directing classes. Gone but not forgotten, Chad, you always brightened my day. I would also like to thank the cast and crew of my One Act. Thanks Kat, Lucas and Daniel; I could not have had a better cast. You guys rock. Thanks to the teachers who have shown me the best three years of my life. Mr. D-C, you're the best. To my parents- thanks for letting me go to a great school and for all the support. Love ya. In junior high I remember looking up at the grads. They were big, smart and sophisticated. Yet, now that I'm here, I don't see myself in the same light as those former idols. It seems that I didn't really get any older, somehow everyone around me just got younger. Many people have come and gone over the past six years. Here's to the four people who've endured me this whole time: L.T., C.B., D.S., N.R, what would I have done without you?

Victoria became my savior. Its people, its atmosphere and the building itself contain an incredible force of energy. The most important things to me as an artist is to love what you do and feel that it matters. Like any other high school, it's a whole little world of its own. A place where we don't just learn about math or social, but the bigger picture. About life and the world we live in. In high school we're exposed to all kinds of race and backgrounds. We recognize what makes each of us different. So, with open minds and caring hearts we can appreciate and accept that each of us is unique.

"Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness, that most frightens us. We ask ourselves: who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, fabulous? Actually, who are you not to be? You are a child of God. Your playing small does not serve the world. There's nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people won't feel insecure around you. We were born to make manifest the glory of God that is within us. It's not just in some of us; it's in everyone. And, as we let our own light shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same. As we are liberated from our fear, our presence automatically liberates others."

With 6 years come to an end and my dreams of passage come finally to fruition, I look back and see the best years of my life spent with the greatest people I have ever known and loved. These experiences have honed my voice (Polyesters), mind (thanks Mr. Ashton, "Mij") and mostly my heart (all you beautiful ladies). Nate, up for planting trees and living down by the river? Steve, I made it through some rough times, thanks to you. Jess, I'll never forget you; you have my heart.

I know the human life span is finite and we try to achieve some form of immortality in our offspring or our creations and achievements. Maybe what I've written here will give me just a little bit of immortality. I can say nothing that will solve the future where you are now. My voice is all you'll find of me. I have been changed and warped by time but what I truly am will always be the same. You are who you are. No one can change that but you. The only destiny you will find is the one you make for yourself and sometimes, you have little to say in it. But hey...the best part of life is you get to choose what you believe.

Had I listened only to their words and placed no emotional attachments to them, I would have understood they were telling me something of themselves. I now believe and understand that the power within me is the truth, wisdom and harmony. I am power. I have them power. So do you." - Unknown

Life is full of changes and surprises both good and bad. I've learned from what life has offered me, making me independent and strong. I thank my parents for raising me, and my brother for looking out for me. Neal, you've opened my eyes to a world of discovery and you will always be my best friend. I grew up in 3 years, past some of my insecurities and learned to take in life with risks and responsibilities. Thanks to all my teachers, and to my friends. I survived because of you, A.C., R. Bell, Z.M. Thanks to my best friend and true love Steven Spurvey. I learned how to love and trust because of you; you've helped me become who I am. Snob! Keep on partying!!!

Well I have no idea how to say goodbye but here I go any ways. Here's to "drinking" in TA class, everything is Ross' fault and of course the forever famous grassy knoll. First off I have to say hi to JW (I love you with all my heart forever and always). Goodbye to all my friends JB, LG, and my baby KO and everyone else I am sorry I just don't have enough room but, you know how you are. This school and its memories will be in my heart forever and hopefully in yours too. Remember everything happens for a reason and things could always be worse. Well that's all that I can think of for my goodbye. Love ya.

I finally did it! 13 years of school, that stupid ladder of achievement actually worked. I may not have been the best student but I thank everyone who got me through the years; God, my family and friends and most of all my teachers. Life is like a Christmas tree and every-thing in our lives is decoration. Too little and our lives are bare and sparse. Too many that we are no longer able to see the tree and our lives are busy and fake. But just the right balance and our Christ-mas tree is the most beautiful one we know. Twiggy: Eat! Drink! Surprisingly, I haven't been able to think up a witty, existential little rant, so you might want to just skip ahead to Adam's quote. If not, here's a list of stuff that I will remember and cherish for, oh, about a month. Eddie, Joel, Kyle, Graham, Dennis and the rest of the Dangertones. Hockey, in general, but definitely with Tony, Tessa, Nikiforuk and anyone else that knows who Barilko was. Ski trips with Marc, Nathan, Peter, overflowing toilets and "weird odors". Pete, Draginda, Bogner and Jarrett with me on the infamous "Vic Line", the best line on the second worst team in Edmonton Minor Hockey. Canada Day, Carlos the trucker and other Tessa moments. I've been here forever, it seems. Most of the ups and downs in my life have happened in these halls and four people have been there to help me through them: L.T., C.B., V.C., D.S. Love you guys. We've to to keep in touch. I am finally out of here!

To all of those I love, you have left an imprint on my life that I cherish. The six of us, we did it but what for? AL, hit it with your best shot! Andreas, JT, well, your hearts were in the right place. Liesa, how can I thank you? Nate, let's remember junior high. Jen, keep on no strings attached. EV, girl down the street, I will never forget you. Neil and Mike, you are truly great! SM my new friend. Tris, thank you for touching me with your sweetness. My parents, you are wonderful! Thank you for the world! To my teachers, you have made me less ignorant. And Phil, you will always have a special place in my heart. Thank you for inspiring me with all that you are!

Six years. How can I sum it all up? Water fights, RIBT games, flaming toilet seats, countless rehearsals and productions and the occasional wild party. Thanks to all my great friends for the many memorable times. You're what public school is really all about. Also, thanks to those of you good teachers who've made parts of these past six years a lot more tolerable. And now, just to keep up my reputation of being a bitter, negative person... But really, what's to be negative about? We've all learned to dance, act, sing, paint and play instruments, so we're all well prepared to face the REAL world now. Say goodbye, everyone. Fast approaching are the days when we'll have Kappa Alphas of our own.

Surely it was only yesterday that we began grade 10. Three very short years later I retain a tapestry of memories, experiences, friends, and good times. Vic has given me so many unique arts opportunities for which I am truly grateful. Through these opportunities I have gained greater self-understanding and had the chance to work with many wonderful people. The students and staff have made Vic a great place for my high school years. All the best to everyone, especially my friends, in all your future aspirations.

Wow! Where do I go from here? Six years at Vic and so many memories I will never forget. Thanks Kim and Chantal for being there for me, always. Amanda, my first jr. high friend. Jr. high's processed cheese kiss. Wad, you've taught me so much. Camplake camping, scary Blair Witch stickmen (Sam, Kim). Cheerleading, Myrtle Beach, thanks Mrs. G. for all the advice. Three alley cats in Lloydminster causing a rukus. Sugarbowl with Ari (F.O.P.) and I can't forget all my locker buddies. As we walk our path of life, we meet people every day. Most are simply met by chance but some are sent our way. These become the special friends whose bond we can't explain...the ones who understand us and share our joy and pain. Their friendship has no boundaries. So, even when apart, the memories still embrace us with a warmth felt in our heart. This friendship is a passageway that makes time disappear. And so these friends sent our way remain, forever near.

The years have flown by at Vic, full of friends, memories and fun. Some of the best memories were the ski trip last year, all the sports, and the best darned P.E. 20 class yet! To my team mates, it's been great, good luck in the future kamikaze, cream puff and all the rest. To my best friend since sixth grade, you'll get old green eyes some day. Pickle, hope you don't sleep through life, there's so much to see. My T.A. girls, make me proud. Mr. W., you were a friend, mentor and a great teacher; Zeppelin 4-ever. To all my friends, best wishes, I'll see you in 2025. What can I say about the class of 2000? Only one word...PROCRASTINATION. LOOK WHERE IT GOT US!

To my friends, you know yourselves, thank you for the support you've given me. It is important that we all remember that it is not so important what we believe in, so long as we have something to believe in. Although I do not know these people personally, I must thank them, as well. Korn-I may not always like you but at this time in my life, your music has enriched and inspired me. Director Kevin Smith, your films made me laugh, cry and talk with bad grammar. Jay and Silent Bob, you gave me a subculture to throw myself into. Rock on everyone. I wish you the best of luck in whatever you do. Silicon Gophers forever!! Whoo! Snoogans! And that is my final answer.

I feel like I'm about to write a speech! But it's finally here, the end of high school. Thanks to all who helped me make it here. I couldn't have don't it without you. Mom, I love you. To my friends K.Z. (remember math is fun!! Yeah and chem went well!) S.M. and C.M., my Queen E. girls, to the boys P.M., D.E. and J.g., thanks for the memories. All my love now, tomorrow, forever and always to J.K. Congrats to the graduating millenium class of 2000! We did it guys. Miss G. and the Sr. Girls' VB Team, thanks for a great time. I'll miss you.

Holy man, time goes by fast. I just want to thank Toby Donnelly and the rest of Real FX for leaving me with so many memories. Let's keep this up. Toby, we are going to see stars one day. Thanks N.W., J.I., J.M., L.G., C.E., K.P., N.J.; let's have a really good laugh once in a whole. And last of all thanks to my parents for believing in me and keeping me on track. Your words of wisdom and caring will be with me forever. Good luck to the class of 2000!

All I have to say is thank God, I'm finally done. I especially want to thank my Mom and Dad for always pushing me and reminding me how good it feels to accomplish something. I love you both more than you will ever know. There's this one special person in my life who's someone I could never live without. Amanda, that's you. You're my best friend and we've been through it all. You'll always be with me and I love you very much. Twins! Throughout the past 3 years at Vic, I've gone through many tattoos, piercings and the ever-changing cuts and colors. It's been fun and knowing you can be yourself is even better. I've met many interesting friends and teachers here and that's something I'll never forget. Thanks to everyone that's ever helped me get through the past 12 years. I really appreciate it! Amanda, one more thing. We should reward ourselves

Hey guys, it's all done now! Thanks to all my Monkeys who made it crazy and bearable. Tessa, aren't you glad we don't hate each other anymore? What a waste of two years, 'cause we are the same person! Heather, thanks for being the kindest person I know. Tisha, I know you're not here, but it does rock! To my Leaps and Bounds dancers, thanks for being amazing and remember, "Make 'em cry!" Xtreme Team forever! Linds, you didn't think I'd forget you? You are the greatest; thanks for teaching me so much and for being one of my best friends! For you and Tessa, "I miss the Aussies!" To all my other buds, MG, LE, RH, AW, TG, KH, AL, MM, I want to thank you for being there. To my parents and teachers; thanks for everything! Thanks for the memories!

Although this has been my first and last year at Vic, it was great. I don't think if would've been the same without the friends I have here; they definitely made life more interesting! Shelley, Daniel, all the Amandas, Jessica, Danielle, Audrey (the Goat) Sheena and Mike (cutest couple), Laura, Colin, Holly, Dawn, Jen, Sea, Will (after chem Taco Bell will never be the same!) and anyone else I've missed. Thank you for making my grade 12 year the greatest ever! I'll miss you! And Trent S., don't worry, love, you're not forgotten! It's been a rocky year and I have little regrets. We had the millenium, Kosovo, international space station, Bill Clinton and Pokemon - all moments in history. Going through life those first couple of years we couldn't wait until school was over. But now that we are in the last year of the beginning of our life, we can't understand where time has gone. High school is not the end, but the beginning of the bigger picture all over again. My words to the grads of 2000 "We are all in a dark room we call life. I wish you good luck that you find the door in this world we live in. Few ever do."
